

I'm not robot!

I took my love and I took it down I climbed a mountain and I turned around And I saw my reflection in the snow covered hills Well the landslide brought me down Oh, mirror in the sky What is love Can the child within my heart rise above Can I sail thru the changing ocean tides Can I handle the seasons of my life Well, I've been afraid of changing 'cause I built my life around you But time makes you bolder Children get older I'm getting older too Well... Well, I've been afraid of changing 'cause I built my life around you But time makes you bolder Children get older I'm getting older, too Well I'm getting older too So, take this love and take it down Year and if you climb a mountain and ya turn around And if you see my reflection in the snow-covered hills Well the landslide brought me down And if you see my reflection in the snow-covered hills Well maybe Well maybe Well maybe the landslide will bring you down Dodaj interpretacije do tego tekstu » Historija odjcci tekstu Have:12Want:3Avg Rating:5 / 5Ratings:11Last Sold:NeverLowest–Median–Highest–The Chicks - Landslide (Official Video)3:48Dixie Chicks / Sheryl Crow - Landslide (with lyrics)3:46Published by Welsh Witch Music (BMI) admin. by Sony/ATV Songs LLC (BMI). © 2002 Sony Music Entertainment, Inc. The song was first featured on the band's self-titled 1975 album, Fleetwood Mac. The original recording also appears on the compilation albums 25 Years – The Chain (1992) and The Very Best of Fleetwood Mac (2002), while a live version was released as a single 23 years after the live reunion album The Dance. "Landslide" reached No. 51 on the US Billboard Hot 100 chart and No. 10 on the Adult Contemporary chart. "Landslide" was certified Gold in October 2009 for sales of over 500,000 copies in the United States. According to Nielsen SoundScan, "Landslide" sold 2,093,186 copies in the United States as of 2017.[2] In 2021, it was listed at No. 163 on Rolling Stone's "Top 500 Best Songs of All Time"[3] History Nicks has said that she wrote the song while contemplating either going back to school or continuing on professionally with guitarist Lindsey Buckingham. Their album Buckingham Nicks had been dropped by Polydor Records before they could release a follow up. Nicks wrote the song while visiting Aspen, Colorado, sitting in someone's living room "looking out at the Rocky Mountains pondering the avalanche of everything that had come crashing down on us ... at that moment, my life truly felt like a landslide in many ways".[4] The song is one of Fleetwood Mac's most frequently performed during tours. Nicks has sung it on every Fleetwood Mac tour since joining the band, with the exception of the Shake the Cage tour, as well as on all of her own solo tours from 2005 onwards.[5] A live performance of "Landslide" recorded on 27 June 1980, at the London Wembley Arena during the Tusk Tour was included on Live. Other live recordings of "Landslide" also appear on The Dance (1997), Live in Boston (2004), Crystal Visions – The Very Best of Stevie Nicks (2007) (with the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra), The Soundstage Sessions (2009), Soundstage, and the Live in Chicago DVD. Nicks also regularly performs "Landslide" along with "Stand Back" during television guest appearances. The group's arrangement went on to be one of the rock band's most-beloved tracks and even had the approval of Nicks herself. As she told fans during a 1998 online chat with SonicNet, "There's nothing more pleasing to a songwriter than [someone else] doing one of their songs. ['Landslide'] also led me to being friends with Billy Corgan and the possibility that we'll work together," she said of the Smashing Pumpkins frontman. "Over this song, there's been this incredible connection ... he reached out ... I believe that my poetry is really meant for everyone, no matter what age." The new version was a hit, making it to the top three on the Modern Rock Tracks chart in the United States that year and No. 30 on the US Airplay charts. The song was also featured on the US version of their greatest hits album Rotten Apples. It was later used in the TV show Alias on season 1 in the episode Page 47. Lead singer Natalie Maines said she was attracted to the song because she was then the same age that Nicks was when she first performed it. The Dixie Chicks performed the song with Nicks at VH1 Divas Las Vegas in 2002.[citation needed] The music video for the song was directed by Jim Gable and edited by Scott C. Wilson.[citation needed] The Dixie Chicks version, featuring the Dixie Chicks' two- and three-part harmonies, reached the top 10 on the US Billboard Hot 100 and the Billboard Hot Country Songs chart.[18][19] On the Billboard Adult Contemporary chart, it is the band's only number-one single. [20] After Maines publicly criticised President George W. Bush and the imminent Allied invasion of Iraq, triggering a backlash, it fell to number 43 on the Billboard Hot 100 in one week and left the chart a week later.[21] Outside the United States, "Landslide" reached number two in Canada and became the Dixie Chicks' only top-10 hit in Australia, where it reached number six.[22][23] It was certified platinum by the Recording Industry Association of America (RIAA) and triple platinum by the Australian Recording Industry Association (ARIA).[24][25] Charts Weekly chart performance for "Landslide" Chart (2002–2003) Peakposition Australia (ARIA)[23] 6 Canada (Nielsen SoundScan)[22] 2 Ireland (IRMA)[26] 46 New Zealand (Recorded Music NZ)[27] 27 Scotland (OCC)[28] 59 UK Singles (OCC)[29] 55 US Billboard Hot 100[18] 7 US Adult Contemporary (Billboard)[20] 1 US Adult Top 40 (Billboard)[30] 2 US Hot Country Songs (Billboard)[19] 2 US Mainstream Top 40 (Billboard)[31] 13 Year-end chart performance for "Landslide" Chart (2002) Position Canada (Nielsen SoundScan)[32] 34 US Country Songs (Billboard)[33] 48 Chart (2003) Position Australia (ARIA)[34] 42 US Billboard Hot 100[35] 35 US Adult Contemporary (Billboard)[36] 17 US Adult Top 40 (Billboard)[36] 19 Certifications Certifications and sales for "Landslide" Region Certification Certified units/sales Australia (ARIA)[25] 3× Platinum 210,000 United States (RIAA)[24] Platinum 1,000,000 Sales+streaming figures based on certification alone.
